

Account Registration Guidelines (OJS, 2026):

1. Click “Register” on the upper right corner of AJAWEL’s homepage

The screenshot shows the AJAWEL homepage. The header is dark blue with the AJAWEL logo on the left, which includes a circular emblem with a scale of justice and the text 'AJAWEL Asian Journal of Animal Welfare, Ethics, and Law'. To the right of the logo are navigation links: 'About', 'For authors', 'Current', 'Archives', and 'Special Issues: AWIC 2026 - Guideline for Authors'. On the far right of the header are the 'Register' and 'Login' buttons. A large red arrow points from the bottom left towards the 'Register' button. Below the header, the main content area is white. On the left, there is a section titled 'About the Journal' with a paragraph describing the journal's focus on bridging veterinary medicine, law, philosophy, social sciences, and public policy. Below this is a 'Mission' section with a bulleted list of three points: disseminating ethical research, establishing collaborative networks, and raising public awareness. On the right side of the main content area, there is a sidebar with a section titled 'About' containing links for 'Journal overview', 'Aims and scope', and 'Editorial board'. Below this is a link for 'For Authors'. Further down is a section titled 'Ethics and Policies' with links for 'Publication Ethics', 'Plagiarism Policy', 'Peer Review Policies', and 'Principles of Transparency'.

About the Journal

Asian Journal of Animal Welfare, Ethics and Law (AJAWEL) is a peer-reviewed, open-access journal dedicated to bridging veterinary medicine, law, philosophy, social sciences, and public policy, thereby promoting sustainable animal welfare. The journal encourages multidisciplinary exchange among scholars, researchers, practitioners, policymakers, and the general community. AJAWEL is published in English and follows a bimonthly schedule, with regular issues released in April and September, except for special issues.

Mission

- Disseminating ethical, relevant, and innovative research.
- Establishing collaborative networks with academic and professional institutions at both national and international levels.
- Raising public awareness about the importance of animal welfare and the responsibilities humans have toward animals.
